

Robert Parker's

Wine Advocate

GEORGES DUBOEUF 2009 MOULIN-À-VENT FLOWER LABEL

87-88+

P O I N T S

“Duboeuf’s 2009 Moulin-a-Vent Fut de Chene displays some of the same slightly negative synergy of strong fruit extraction and oak (perhaps also, in this instance, alcohol) that resulted in roughness here and there among other of their 2009s from this appellation. That said, nobody is going to fault this on sheer grip or concentration, and the wine is loaded with ripe black fruits displaying real cut and energy. Hints of resin and the leafy side of cassis reflect a slightly reduced state at present, and it will be interesting to revisit after bottling, which is was not anticipated until September.”

— David Schildknecht
Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, Issue #190 August 2010

