

André Lurton 2007 Château Couhins-Lurton Pessac-Léognan

88 POINTS

“A dry, spicy wine, with some good dense tannins. There is some power here, the dark fruits hinting at sweetness, but this is followed by the high acidity typical of the vintage. It should all come together in a year to 18 months.”

- Roger Voss

