

Robert Parker's

Wine Advocate

ISSUE #188, APRIL 2010

ANDRÉ LURTON 2009 CHÂTEAU LA LOUVIÈRE

88-90

P O I N T S

“A strong effort in Pessac-Leognan, this opaque ruby/purple-tinged wine displays loads of creme de cassis, tobacco leaf, damp earth, and graphite. Medium to full-bodied, with supple tannins, yet good freshness and vibrancy, the wine is bigger than usual but a textbook Graves and ideal for drinking in its first 15 or more years of life.”

