

Robert Parker's

Wine Advocate

ISSUE #188, APRIL 2010

RAMÓN BILBAO 2006 CRIANZA

---

86 POINTS

“Dary ruby-colored, it offers up an attractive nose of cedar, spice box, leather, violets, and blackberry. On the palate it is medium-bodied with ample savory fruit leaning toward elegance. It has good concentration and a bit of structure that should permit another 6 years of enjoyable drinking. It is a good value.”

