GEORGES DUBOEU 2008 FLEURIE CHÂTEAU de GRAND PRÉ

“Mineral and carnal character is exactly what the 2008 Fleurie Château de Grand Pré delivers in the form of bone meal and beef marrow mingled with bright plum. This displays wonderful sappiness and energy, making me ask “What’s got into its Fleurie stable mates?” Plum pit bitterness and underlying meatiness mark a finish that is lip smacking in its brightness and mineral savor. I would love to see what this does beyond the first couple of years in the bottle.”
