KUNDE FAMILY ESTATE 2008 Magnolia Lane Sauvignon Blanc Sonoma Valley

"Absolutely on point insofar as its grassy, keenly varietal bias is concerned, this likeable offering delivers a nice bit of green fig and melon-like fruit as well and is far more than a simple expression of green herbs. It is rounded in feel and finds just the right note of finishing crispness, and as it settles down over the next several months, we expect its slightly finishing coarsness to diminish."
