

Robert Parker's

Wine Advocate

ISSUE #184, 8/31/09

PIERRE SPARR 2008 PINOT GRIS RESERVE

87 POINTS

“The Sparr 2008 Pinot Gris Reserve offers aromas of peaches and smoked meat typical for its variety. Soft and lush if a bit loose on the palate, it happily conjoins modest (13.5%) alcohol with true dryness. Subtle salinity and meat stock suggestions mingle with the peaches in a satisfyingly sappy, faintly but invigorating bitter finish. Enjoy this over the next 2-3 years.”

